MACY SHOWS HIS QUALITY.

Harlem had a fast track and good racing Saturday. The attendance was large.

Locust Blossom surprised her stable by winning the first race from a bad start. Friday she was backed and ran fourth. Yesterday she ran, was not backed, and won.

Mart Jordan got the second purse for 2-year-old fillies with Martha Fox, a real good looking daughter of Silver Fox and Martha Washington. She is a promising filly.

George Belknap's American Derby candidate Pingree, won the third race and hung up the best mile record of the meeting, 1:41. Cherry Leaf's admirers thought he could not lose. The Devil was second and gave the winner a stout argument. Pingree was not keyed up for a battle.

Macy was so good that he put Indra into a frame of shabbiness. When Macy meets the best horses in training, there will be a hot time of it.

Richard J. strung out the sprinters in the stake and performed in fast time. The wise men considered Hugh Penny a surety. Sligo had worked well, but performed shabbily.

King Barleycorn and Batten raced around the upper turn in 24. That pace stopped Batten. There was about the strongest plunge of the meeting on Batten.

Lew Hopper, the favorite, won the last race easily. As usual, he came through in the stretch. Floronso, off last, ran the best race.

Charley Boots arrived from Sacramento yesterday with a string that included the American Derby candidate Borgia. The horses were taken to Washington Park.

Max Blumenthal has landed from California and goes East to book all summer. He did not "lay up" anything during the winter.

The 2-year-olds belonging to D. C. Shafer were shipped to Highland Park, Detroit, last night.

Bliss Rucker still has a slight fever, but is steadily improving. The other horses of the Burns & Waterhouse string are doing well.

Jockey Burns will be at Harlem Monday and is likely to ride there during the rest of the meeting.

The stables of W. H. Roller and J. W. Wilson were shipped to Detroit yesterday.

Eugene Leigh has decided to send Parson to Canada to perform over the jumps and in the interest of general theology.

H. Martin has a high opinion of Pingree. Speaking of the colt's race, he said: "He had so much speed and was so rank that I could not take him back without pulling him all over the track, and that I would not do. After he had gone a half he was easy to handle, and I took him back. He had Cherry Leaf safe everywhere and left him on call. He showed himself a game horse when The Devil tackled him in the stretch. The race will do him a lot of good and I believe he will improve with racing. Mr. Belknap has a useful if not a high class horse in Pingree."

In the fourth race, just after finishing the odd seventy yards, Indra made a lunge to the right and gave his head a violent swing in the same direction. Spectators shouted: "Look at him trying to bite Chugnut." Caywood said that the biting idea was not correct and that the horse simply resisted being taken back and showed temper in doing so.

Turner was called to the stand three times by Col. Clark. Before going to the post for the stake event he was admonished that a vigorous finish on Hugh Penny was desired. After the race he was called up and complimented for the manner in which he had ridden and told to try and do equally well every time he had a mount. While the 2-year-olds were parading for the sixth race, Turner—riding King Barleycorn—was invited to a judicial call. Col. Clark told him that inasmuch as his mount had receded in the betting and Batten had been heavily backed, the ride King Barleycorn would get would be closely watched. After the race 'Gene Leigh sent Turner to the stand to make a complaint against Hill, who rode Batten. King Barleycorn is a sulker and will bite at horses that bump him. Turner told his employer that going the first quarter around the turn Hill was bumping him all the time, with the evident intention of making King Barleycorn sulk. These tactics had some effect, according to Master Turner. Batten had hardly been shaken off before Barleycorn swerved wickedly across to the inside rail, shaking his head and showing that his ire was fully aroused. But he won.

Imp was well and playful yesterday. She showed no signs of having had a bruising race the day before. Charlie Brossman thinks more of her than ever before but says he does not think she could win the Suburban. Although urged by many turfmen to take the filly East he is not likely to do so. He said: "They only want to get rid of her around here."

THOS. J. GALLAGHER.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Some changes in the scene of racing operations will mark the present week. The Oakley meeting comes to an end Tuesday and the horsemen now at the Cincinnati track will move across the river to the Latonia track where the sport begins Thursday. The series of Northern Circuit meetings will be inaugurated with the beginning of operations at Detroit Tuesday. Almost needless to say the first day at each track will witness the decision of a so-called Derby. So with Gravesend, St. Louis and Harlem also in full blast there will be abundant turf problems for lovers of the gallant thoroughbred to ponder over this week.

St. Louis has full possession of a turf scandal connected with one of Friday's races concerning which the Globe-Democrat says:

There was a bad looking race at the Fair Grounds yesterday, one of the worst looking, in fact, that ever was run. After it was over a jockey was suspended indefinitely and an owner was ordered to remove his horses from the track. Those who have followed the local racing game with anything like diligence will not be surprised to learn that Warren is the jockey in trouble. The owner implicated by the officials was R. Rome, and it was for the ride Warren gave Dollie Regent in the first race that jockey, owner and horses were banished. The stewards are not through with the case yet. After the race Judge Murphy said that the matter was still under consideration and it was possible a few gentlemen would be ruled off. No lover of honest racing will be sorry to learn this, and it is only to be hoped that the stewards will investigate so closely and thoroughly that every one in any way connected with the scandal will be ruled off and kept off every race track in the country, not only this month and this year, but next year and for all time.

And the stewards should go still further. They should rule off every horse implicated in the "shoo-in" of Judge Tarvin, if more than one was stopped, which, however, is hardly possible. And after being ruled off they should be branded for purposes of identification so they could never again be raced under their own or any other names. If such drastic measures were used in one or two cases it is not likely the dose would have to be repeated often, and it is only through such measures that the owners who believe racetrack patrons to be legitimate prey can be brought to a different way of thinking. Moral suasion is all very well in its place, but it is laughed at on a racetrack.

Time, 12, 25, 48, 1:03, 1:16.

Winner—Ch. c. 4, by Top Gallant—Dolly Varden. Start fair. Won handily. Typhoon was best. He got away well and was lucky. Was well ridden. He is in perfect form. Rotterdam closed very fast and showed remarkable improvement. Tabouret looked like a winner in head of stretch, but stopped in last furlong. She made a wide turn. The Manxman was closing fast. He was hemmed on the rail. Sensational had had luck. He was shut off on the turn. Sagacity is unreliable and stopped at the end. Traverser is absolutely of no present account. He had no speed and quit badly under punishment. Hanwell is only formidable in mud. He likes weight off. The others had no chance after the start.

Scratched—Helmsdale, 107; Babieca, 104.

Time, 12, 26, 51, 1:03, 1:16, 1:42, 1:49.

Winner—Ch. h. 7, by Harry O'Fallon—Lady Royster. Start straggling. Won easily. Lehman was waited with and easily the best. He shows signs of decay. Marsian is an improved horse. He hung on gamely after being much used in the first part of the race. Juno quit in the last furlong after making a lot of trouble. Is very speedy. Closed a big gap and ran around her field. Bannock can do better and is getting good. He was eased at the end. Nuto had no chance with the ride he got. Watch him. He showed much speed and was short. Is in good condition. Alvarado was eased in the last quarter. He ran a good race, but was unluckily placed through the race. Merlin showed a lot of speed. Watch him elsewhere. He was outclassed today.

Scratched—Howard Mann, 118; Doggett, 109; Refugee, 105.

Overweights—Bannock, 3 pounds.

6195 THIRD RACE—5-8 Mile. 2-year-olds. Allowances. Hudson Stakes. $3,500 Guaranteed.

Time, 12, 23, 35, 49, 1:02.

Winner—B. c. by His Highness—Carrie W. Start good. Won easily. Beraud was easily the best and is a colt of high class. Frohsinn closed like a good colt. He is evidently a rare stayer and game to the core. He is also of the improving sort. Kingdon was outgamed in the last sixteenth, after seeming to be a surety for second place. Wernberg stopped at the end after showing a sharp burst of speed. He inclines toward mud. Miller is of no account and fits in with cheaper company. He outclasses such colts on mere speed.

Scratched—Havelock, 115; Gold Car, 115.

6196 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile. 3-year-olds. Allowances. Carlton Stakes. $5,000 Guaranteed.

*Added starter. Time, 12, 25, 37, 49, 1:03, 1:16, 1:45.

Winner—Ch. c. by Knight of Ellerslie—Moss Rose. Start good. Won in a gallop. The Huguenot outclassed his field. He was waited with until ready and came through like a flash. Sanders ran in improved form. It was promised in his last race. George Boyd was unlucky and outprinted at the end. Watch him. He favors a route and the mud. Mr. Baiter is not of much account among the best class of youngsters. He was very lame after his race and has probably broken down.

Scratched—Junior, 117.

"I HAVE STUDIED YOUR BOOK, 'HORSE RACING, OR THE ART OF MAKING MONEY AT THE RACE TRACK' and I don't see that there is any room for criticism, for I think that anyone who has played the races can't help but see that every word is true. I think there is more to be learned in 15 minutes reading it than any ordinary man could learn in as many years by simply following the races," writes an ardent admirer of this handsome and sensible little book, which is issued free to readers of DAILY RACING FORM on application to the publishers, A. F. Withe, & Co., 720 Omaha Building, Chicago, Ill. Everyone interested in the noble sport should read it.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A dispatch from New York to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat says: "One of the Fleischmanns says that the offer Sloan received to ride in England next year came from the Duke of Portland. Sloan will, it is said, accept it. He will sail early in October. The season in England lasts longer than it does here, and Sloan will finish the season with the Lorillard-Beresford stable, for which he rode last year. Sloan did not ask to be released from his contract with the Fleischmanns in order to go to England this year. It is said that the Duke of Portland's retainer will be between $20,000 and $25,000."

Concerning the eastern 2-year-old fillies, Morning Telegraph says: "The 2-year-old fillies do not seem to be a particularly high class lot by the way they keep beating each other. One day Ornamental gives promise of being a real good one, then Onondaga's Pride trims her, which in turn succumbs to Lady Meddlesome and High Degree. Now all except High Degree may be considered second best to Whiplash. The latter is no doubt a good filly and with her size and speed, if not given too much of it this year, ought to develop into a grand 3-year-old."

The famous Monmouth Park track is reported to have been sold for $40,000 to Martin Van Keuren, the superintendent of the course, who represents others. An effort to pass a law permitting limited racing will be made next winter. If it succeeds Monmouth Park will resume its old place in the list of tracks governed by the Jockey Club. Otherwise Monmouth Park may become a truck patch.

Mirthful's easy victory in the Parkway Handicap should encourage Morris Bros. to send him out here as an American Derby starter. He is evidently a good colt and what is very much to the purpose, one that is improving right along.

Start straggling. Won driving. Formoso was best and closed a big gap in the last half. He is in sharp form. Mr. Clay looked like a winner a furlong out, but was worn down. Watch him especially in mud. Kirkwood ran an honest race. Boney Boy stopped right at the end. He ran a good race and had a winning chance. Got a bad ride. Effervescent—on the rail—closed ground throughout. Armament had no chance with ride and was very unlucky. Watch Cormorant. Is a sprinter and favors mud. Diminutive was eased at the end. Watch him. Big Indian has worked well.

Winner—Ch. f, 3, by Chance—Locust Blossom.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. The first six were driving hard. Locust Blossom had all the luck of the race. She got on the rail and just managed to stagger home. The boy was just as tired as she was. Necedah was the best, and with the least bit of good luck could not have lost. She got the worst of the break and could never get through. Van Kuren was obliged to go all around his field on the far turn, and the mare finished with a tremendous rush. Gold Corn ran to the notch. She is in winning form. First Call is a coward. He stopped as if shot in the stretch. Scratched—Pitfall, 105; Ten Pins, 102; Inconstancy, 101; Treeby, 101.

Winner—Br. f, by Silver Fox—Martha Washington.
Off at first break to a good start. Won in a mild drive; second, third and fourth driving hard. Martha Fox was heavily played. She ran a clever race. Primavera, off flying, was out-run the first part of it, but finished strong. She will do better over a distance of ground. Betta showed a sharp turn of speed. Tab her. She is fast and fit. Babe Robertson did not quite run her race. Hermione seems to be stale and to need a rest.
Scratched—Overami, 104.

Winner—Ch. c, 3, by Farandole—Lagan.
Off at first break to a good start. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third eased a trifle after an early drive. Pingree was the best and outclassed his field. He was a trifle short. This race will put him on edge. Martin rode the colt with judgment. He rated him nicely in front and when it came to a pinch rode a strong finish. The Devil ran a good race. He has been underestimated. It was only Pingree's class that beat him. Cherry Leaf was too much used early with Pingree and died away in the stretch. This was not quite his race. Pete Kitchen ran a bad race. He has little or no class, though, and favors a heavy track.

6176 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile and 70 Yards. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Winner—Br. c, 4, by Hindoo—Alga.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily up; second well in hand. Macy is cherry ripe. He galloped over Indra on call. All Clawson had to do was to sit still and hold the colt's head up. This colt is perhaps as good as anything on the grounds just now. Indra had a lot of speed, but was rank. He almost pulled Caywood out of the saddle going around the first turn. He is good, but not in the same class as Macy.
Scratched—Frank Thompson, 99.

Winner—Br. c, 3, by Morello—Bonnie Leaf.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; the next three were driving hard. Richard J. was at his best. His race was above the notch. Hugh Penny is good and ran a clever race. Turner handled him nicely. Tom Collins ran his race. He outgamed Good Friend for third place through the stretch. The latter was off in a poor position and was much used down the back stretch. Sligo II. seemed stiff and sore and did not run his race. Lizzie Cavalier had little or no speed. Throw her race out.
Scratched—Ramiro II, 110.

Winner—Ch. c, by Kantaka—Nattot.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a gallop; second eased up at the end after an early drive; the third and fourth were ridden out. King Barleycorn was at his best and won as he pleased. He made the field behind him look cheap. Batten was heavily backed. He is a good colt, but not of King Barleycorn's class. Mazie V. ran a good race under a poor ride. Exception had a flash of early speed, but could not carry it.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second and third driving. St. Augustine does not fancy a route. Joe Hart was galloping to the stretch. He had to be shaken up though to stall of Zarina's rush. Percita finished strong. She can win at a longer route. Zarina ran an honest, consistent race.

Scratched—Groganette, 102.

Winner—Ch. c, 4, by Tension—May.
Post 5 minutes. Start fair. The first two were driving. C. S. Bush was lucky. He was at a false price on his last race. Burns with India tried to squeeze through, but was pinched and had to go around. It cost him the race. Morgan was trying to keep from putting him over the fence. He could not help his own horse in consequence. Gold Top and Laverna had plenty of speed.

Scratched—Alva, 108; C. C. Rumrill, 108; Inspirer, 107; Miss Floride, 87.
Overweights—Tom Kingsley, 3 pounds.

Winner—Br. f, by Barnes—Bettie W.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second driving also. Pearl Barnes is an exceptionally fast filly. She was stopping badly at the finish. Fausturo was under a drive from the start. Flying Bird ran a real good race. The others might as well have been in the stable. Hadrian had no speed.
Scratched—Nancy Seitz, 115; Sadie Artha, 115; Genna, 115; Pell Mell II., 115.

Winner—B. f, 4, by Ben d'Or—Quickset.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second driving hard. There was little to choose between the first three. Fervor got up at the sixteenth pole but failed in the final strides. Woods won by sitting still. If he had picked up his whip he would have been beaten. Eva Rice seems to be of no present account. It was a good race.
Overweights—Miss Verne, 2 pounds; Lady Callahan, 3½; Zorrazo, 3½.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a walk; second driving and out to the limit. What er Lou was much the best. He seemed able to go to Lieber Karl at any time. When he moved to him the race was over. Our Chance was out at six furlongs. Elusive closed strong. Counter Tenor is a relic of past greatness.
Scratched—Algol, 107; Buckvidere, 105; Sir Rolla, 90; Imperious, 88.

Scratched—Amber Glints, 109; Maddalo, 107; Harrie Floyd, 105; Blitzen's Sister, 102.

Winner—B. c, by Topgallant—Little Kate.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive. Sir Rolla was the best. It was a peculiarly run race. There was no pace. Burns wisely went on with Rolla. Oninoor closed strong and forced Sir Rolla to a sharp drive at the finish. Siva was galloping for five furlongs. He is best when a sharp pace is made.
